More River Road Paving Possible This Year

Hinges on Legislative Decision on Gasoline Tax, License Boosts

If the Illinois General Assembly increases state highway funds this year, efforts will be made to schedule 1967 paving of the Great River Road between West Ponton road and Niedringhaus avenue, District Highway Engineer Robert Kronst said here yesterday. It is not currently budgeted.

Addressing a luncheon meeting of the Transportation and Highway Committee of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, Kronst said priority also is being given to extension of Nameoki road as a divided four-lane road to Interstate 270 at Mitchell. It is hoped to complete acquisition of right-of-way this year.

Widening of Nameoki road south from Washington avenue is expected to be under way by mid-1967, the chief engineer of 11-county District Eight related. It is also hoped to widen the Great River Road (Federal Aid Route 151) right-of-way between Niedringhaus avenue and Broadway, Venice, this year, negotiations currently are being held with the Army Corps of Engineers.

The Broadway bridge (carrying the Great River Road over that street) is a certainty to be in next year's program, possibly also including related grading and paving.

162-35-111 Projects
As a safety project, we are developing a preliminary study for improvement of Route 162 (Edwardsville road) from Nameoki road to State A-135. Kronst said, noting a high traffic volume and numerous hazards, including railroad tracks.

The safety aspect also is prompting us to schedule future improvement of Highway 111 at its intersections with State A-135 and Route 162. Eventually, Highway 111 should be upgraded to help form the loop needed to connect major routes coming in to this metropolitan area.

"Extension of the Great River Road from Broadway in Venice to St. Clair avenue, East St. Louis, to connect with Interstate Routes 64, 55 and 70 is in the rough-stage planning stage at present," Kronst continued.

"With right-of-way now being purchased from downtown Alton to Illinois Route 151, the Ferguson avenue, you probably will have a limited-access road from Niedringhaus avenue all the way to downtown Alton by 1969."

Acute Need for Funds
Tripling of present funds available in this district is needed to overcome deficiencies and begin meeting rapidly expanding highway needs the engineer told the committee.

While an increase of that scope is not expected, much headway could be made if a flat rate of five-cents-a-gallon state gasoline tax is raised by perhaps two cents and if a flat rate of about $30 for auto licenses is set, Kronst commented.

Because the state shares gasoline taxes with counties, cities and ships and cities and because (Continued on page 5, col. 3)

Junior College Election Saturday

10 Polling Places for Area to Be Open from Noon to 7 p.m. Here

Ten precinct polling places will be open from noon to 7 p.m. Saturday in the Granite City, Madison and Venice school districts for a special election on the proposed Lewis & Clark community junior college district.

Voters residing in all of Madison and Jersey counties, the major part of Calhoun county, the southern half of Macoupin county, as well as portions of Bond, Greene, Montgomery and St. Clair counties, will be eligible to cast ballots.

The proposal calls for authorization of a 25-cent tax rate per $100 assessed valuation, including 10 cents for the building fund and 15 cents for the educational fund. The assessed valuation of the district, containing 1700 square miles, is about $1.1 billion.

Needs Majorities
The proposal will require a favorable majority in both the rural and urban areas of the district.

Attendance centers have been proposed in the Alton area, the Granite City area and between Collinsville and Highland, though no site locations have been designated nor the number of centers established.

The curriculum would include vocational-technical, adult education and two-year pre-professional courses paralleling the first two years of a four-year institution.

The courses would be determined by a seven-member junior college board of education which would be elected by the voters of the district.

Supporters of the district expect an enrollment of 1000 in the first year, growing to more than 3000 within several years.

Precinct Areas
A total of 101 precinct polling places have been arranged in the seven districts of education which would be elected by the voters of the district.

Mr. Troeckler's lifelong residence in the Mitchell and Chouteau townships dates back to his birth on the Mitchell farm which was established in 1871 by John and William Mitchell. The kick-off dinner for the general fund-raising division headed by Dr. Felicia Koch is scheduled for Tuesday, May 2, at the high school cafeteria.

EDITORIAL

The proposed Lewis and Clark Junior College District, which will be voted on here and in parts of eight counties Saturday, April 1, offers little of real value to Quad-Cityans—either students or parents—and its cost to taxpayers will be exorbitant.

This is the conclusion the Press-Record has reached after careful and lengthy study. We have consistently advocated strengthening of our educational system, but this proposition is more apt to dilute and weaken it, at least for some years to come.

There are Illinois areas, of course, where valid arguments can be made for a junior college. But, as an Illinois Junior College Board representative said recently, our community is "uniquely favored" in that we already have a top-rated vocational high school and also a new state university, both open to day students as well as night adult classes and special courses. Further, the university is only partly filled.

Other major reasons which the Press-Record believes justify a "No" vote next Saturday are:

1. By 1975, a junior college enrollment of only 1000 is projected. It takes 5000 students to be able to offer full vocational, technical and related-academic training. Consequently, the program would be of doubtful quality and scope; it would, in a sense, be half-baked, with results in dis-appointment for students and the inevitable dropouts.

2. Southern Illinois University—Southern campus, just a few miles away, not only has empty classrooms but also nearly 2600 acres for future development. And, since it was established as a commuter-type university, in the opinion of its faculty, it may never reach the maximum 18,000 enrollment projected for it.

3. While three junior college campuses are proposed, only one is to be initially built. No location has been selected as yet, but proponents concede some students may have to travel as much as 90 miles to make the round trip daily.

4. For $240 tuition a year, high school graduates can attend the new four-year state university. The tuition figure most frequently mentioned for the proposed junior college is $165 a year, only $75 less.

5. The 25c tax rate which the April 1 election would automatically authorize for junior college purposes amounts to $500,000 a year ($5 million over a 10-year period) in the Granite City school district alone; $150,000 more from the Madison and Venice school districts. The overall junior college district total would be about $2,500,000 annually.

6. The Highland school district is sending eight graduate students to a neighboring junior college (required by law) at an annual cost of $2500. On this basis, Granite City school district could send 1600 graduates, two as many as there are in the whole senior class, for $500,000.

7. Should this community ever determine that an adequate, comprehensive junior college is an educationally and financially sound investment, it can be done at an alternative. Or, by majority vote or by petition of two-thirds of the voters, we can unilaterally annex an adjacent district, thereby strengthening it.

Judge's Decision Places Three More on GC Ballot

ELECTION LITIGATION PRINCIPALS in the ballot cases of aldermanic candidates Kelley Walls and Andrew Gasparovic Jr. before start of a mandamus hearing Monday afternoon in which the court ordered City Clerk Homer "Cal" Pendleton to place their names on the ballot. In the group are, left to right, Walls, City Atty. Dick Allen, Pendleton, Gasparovic and William Brandt, attorney for the candidates.

Three additional aldermanic candidates will be on Granite City's municipal election ballot next Tuesday as the result of court action Monday afternoon. Following a lengthy hearing in the Granite City division of circuit court, Associate Judge Austin Lewis issued writs of mandamus ordering City Clerk

Home "Cal" Pendleton to place on the ballot the names of Andrew Gasparovic Jr. as a candidate in the Third Ward and Kelley Walls as a candidate in the Sixth Ward.

Their petitions, along with those of Norman Alexander, were questioned by city officials because they listed the designation "at-large" along with the ward number.

Judge Lewis considered the two words to be "surplusage" and insignificant. As a result, Pendleton, defendant in the cases, Tuesday morning added Alexander's name to the list of candidates from the Seventh Ward.

Midnight Filing
Gasparovic and Walls had filed their petitions on Feb. 13, the last filing date, and Gasparovic's was accepted at 12:05 a.m. as the city clerk, upon hearing that a number of candidates were at his office waiting to file, appeared to accept the petitions in the middle of the night.

It was another point which was disputed by City Atty. Richard Allen, who had provided legal advice on about "ward-only" petitions at Pendleton's request. The candidates were notified March 27 that their names would not be on the ballot.

The written notice failed to list a reason for the action and it was one of the points criticized by Judge Lewis.

He said he was not finding fault with the city clerk's legal opinion regarding the preparation of the ballot, nor with the city attorney who probably looked into the laws before giving his opinion.

But the judge said the written notices said only that the refusal was made because of the opinion of the city attorney.

Deprived of Rights
"We have no candidates who want to be candidates but unless they filed for writs they would be deprived of that right," the judge said.

No objections to the petitions were filed, he continued. "If so, we would have heard from them on the sufficiency of the petitions by the city's electoral board (composed of the mayor, city clerk and senior alderman). Objections here today would have been determined by an electoral board."

The judge noted, adding that because of the confusion of Associate Judge L. H. Stroger's at-large election order, "it is the opinion of the court that the words at-large are surplusage."

"Both petitions are sufficient," the judge ruled. "The words need not be considered if the intention of the candidate be clear."

Seeking Office Liable
Judge Lewis stated, "There is nothing better to do than to run."

Child Hit by Car On Parking Lot

John Malherbe, two, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Malherbe, 1368 1/2 St. Elizabeth Hospital with leg injuries Tuesday afternoon after he was struck by a hit-and-run car in a parking lot. The child suffered multiple abrasions to his right leg and an injured right foot.

Police reported the boy was struck while he was on the parking lot of an ice cream shop on Broadway. He was accompanied by his sister, Dianne, 13, who said she called to the woman driver of the car. The girl said the driver stopped momentarily then drove away.

Dianne carried the boy home where their mother called police and had the child taken to the hospital.

Richard W. Cottrell, 30, of 2099 East 11th, said he suffered minor injuries when his auto was involved in an accident with a pickup truck driven by Larry E. Brown, 330 Lenox avenue at 18th street and Madison avenue.

The following have undergone surgery at St. Elizabeth Hospital since Wednesday:

Judith Wilkins, Collinsville; Jacob Hiltner, 3707 Fair Oaks bl., Virginia Rockett, 2223 Edison avenue; Adam Munsterman, 3831 Nameoki road; Loreta Werthe, 369 Warren lane.

2 Officials Of Nameoki Twp. to Get Pay Boosts

Supervisor, Road Supt. Get Increases; Venice Hikes Pay for Kimack

The Nameoki town board, acting on a public budget hearing Tuesday night, increased the salary of the township supervisor and township highway commissioner by a total of $2500 per year and boosted the appropriation for deputy assessors by $2000.

The action fixing the salaries was taken under a new interpretation of township organization statutes providing that salaries of two officials are determined by the town board of auditors and are not subject to approval of the annual town electors' meeting which is scheduled at 7 p.m. next Tuesday.

In a similar public hearing by the Venice township board, the salary of Frank Kimack, township highway commissioner, was raised from $3000 to $3600 per year. The Venice board also reduced the $30 budget for payment of election judges. As a result, the Venice total appropriation will be raised $500.

No changes were made in the 1967-68 budget and appropriation of Chouteau township, a brief public hearing at the township office on Old Alton road, held Tuesday night. Only one citizen attended the public hearing at Chouteau and one at Venice, but approximately 30 persons attended the Nameoki meeting.

$15 Per Day Set
At Nameoki township, the board of auditors fixed a new supervisor salary of $15 per day, five days per week, for each of the 52 weeks of the fiscal year, as supervisor of general assistance Briggs' additional salary of $120 per month as town supervisor, was unchanged. The $15 per day provides a total of $3800 per year.

The town supervisor salary of $120 per month provides $1440 per year, making a total salary of $5340.

Under the previous schedule, Supervisor Harbige received a flat sum of $225 per month as supervisor of general assistance, with the $120 per month as town supervisor. A minimum fixed regular salary of $1440 per year. Thus the board's action Tuesday night raises the supervisor's salary by $1000 per year.

The supervisor also receives a per diem of $10 for each meeting of the town board that he attends. A minimum of 24 regular meetings are held each year. In addition he receives $15 per diem and mileage for attending meetings of the county board of supervisors and meetings of county board committees of which he is a member.

City and State Debate Clean Air Controls

Invites Close Inspection
"When you go up to a regional office and take a look around and take your role in the conditions in the American Bottom," the mayor told the state official.

Klassen expressed a willingness to go over the city's proposed changes in its pollution control law as early as Tuesday.

He explained that while the state air pollution control board has been functioning for three years, "We are not getting our feet; a lot has been accomplished. Standards are going to have to be put into force to get action programs going."

The state official complimented Granite City for what it has done, but added that the state board has control over the entire state. "We encourage local control by a municipality, a township or a county, but all areas will be under state control until a certificate of exemption is granted for a local program."

Explaining the state board's action program, Klassen said (Continued on page 5, col. 1)

GC Chairman Comments

Henry Bienicki, chairman of Granite City Air Pollution Control Board, told the Press-Record today, "I must publicly object to the power play by Mr. Klassen at Monday's city council meeting."

"As technical secretary to the state board, he has not found time to answer our letters on policy questions during several months. However, he does seem to be able to find time to spend a half-day to explain the state board's (Continued on page 5, col. 1)

GCHS Quiz Bowl Team in Semi-finals Sunday

A four-member team of Granite City high school students will try to make the finals of the televised "Scholar Quiz Bowl" in an all-Illinois affair, when the local squad takes on Christian Brothers College of St. Louis in a semi-final match at 1 p.m. Sunday on Kmox-TV, Channel Four.

Winner of the semi-final event will compete Sunday, April 9, against the Alton-Wood River high school team which reached the finals last week by eliminating Northwest high school of St. Louis.

Kenneth Spalding, GCHS social science teacher and student advisor who serves as team coach and moderator, pointed out that Sunday's scholar quiz bowl will be aired at an earlier hour than usual, due to network program changes.

According to Donald Markley, quiz bowl coordinator, each member of the championship team will receive a complete set of World Book Encyclopedia and runners-up, two-volume dictionary sets. Semi-final winners will each receive a World Book Atlas, while quarter-finalists are awarded Science Year Books. All students participating in the program also will receive a subscription to Newsweek Magazine, Markley said.

Local team members also will compete in a quiz bowl match during sixth hour Tuesday afternoon at the East St. Louis high school squad. The event will be held in the GCHS auditorium.

The two teams, meeting for the third consecutive year, each hold one victory apiece, Spalding said.

Questions asked on the program range through such subjects as science, mathematics, world history, the arts, literature and contemporary issues. Spalding explained that quick recall of facts plays a large part in determining the winning team.

member. The county board fee is to be raised to $20 per diem at the beginning of the new term of the Nameoki supervisor next month.

The new salary schedule, if the required appropriation and budget is approved in the town meeting next Tuesday night, will be effective with the beginning of the terms of the supervisor and highway commissioner.

Subject to Re-Election
The offices of both Briggs and Hanks are subject to re-election in next Tuesday's township elections. Briggs has opposition but Hanks is assured of re-election since no one is running against him.

The board fixed the salary of the highway commissioner at $20 per day for a six-day week, a total of $6240 per year. Hanks has been receiving $15 per day for a six-day week, an annual salary of $4680.

Briggs told the town board two weeks ago that he had learned through the Illinois Township Officials Association that an attorney general's opinion held that salaries should be fixed for the two offices by the town board. Briggs said the supervisor and highway commissioner salaries have been included in the items approved at the annual town meeting by the township's electors in past years.

The $2000 increase in the appropriation for deputy assessors was made at the request of Township Assessor Joseph Cohan who told the board that he needs an additional deputy assessor. Cohan now employs three deputies. The additional appropriation, if approved at the annual town meeting Tuesday, will allow him to add a fourth.

Raises Budget $4780
Action by the board will therefore raise the total Nameoki town appropriation by $4780. The tentative budget and appropriation posted for public inspection early in March amounted to $177,515, including $94,252 for road and bridge purposes, $45,720 for the town fund, $24,043 for general assistance, and $2500 for municipal retirement.

The Venice township appropriation for which a public hearing was held Tuesday night amounts to $180,321 as posted early this month. It will be increased by $550 in the town fund. The budget as originally drawn includes $23,141 for road and bridge, $54,600 for the town fund, $26,070 for general assistance and $7510 for municipal retirement.

In Chouteau the tentative new budget totals $101,830, including $33,250 for the road and bridge fund, $24,278 for the town fund, $21,510 for general assistance and $2500 for retirement.

SERIES OF BLOOD CENTERS has been operated here this winter and spring by the Tri-City chapter of the American National Red Cross currently observing Red Cross Month. The above view of blood contributions this month at the Granite City Army Depot shows Mrs. Leo H. Konzen, RN, taking blood pressure and Mrs. George T. Wilkins Jr., RN, using a stethoscope. Both contribute their time to the program. Those shown in the right background include Mrs. Kenneth Dayton and Mrs. W. L. Millmore, Red Cross volunteers. ## MORE ABOUT City and State position in setting standards for all of Illinois, Klassen noted that state legislation is now in the hopper for a regional program for this area.

He said high standards could be set to make the state "look good," practical at present has no standards set. As know-how and technology improves, he added, the standards could be revised.

Klassen stressed that it would be more practical to set standards that are economically feasible and that can be met rather than controls that are too high and will require the granting of variance permits.

"We want you to get a solution to your problem that you can enforce and one that industry can live with. We feel that some of the standards being proposed for an interstate program are impractical."

No Federal Standards

Klassen was asked if the federal government would step in if two-state controls were not agreed upon for this area by officials of Illinois and Missouri.

He replied, "The federal government at present has no standards set. I don't think the federal government wants to step in."

When asked about the state's opinion on the proposed changes to strengthen the city's air pollution control ordinance, Klassen

15 Eagle Scouts Honored, Study Future Careers

Fifteen Madison and Bond counties youths who have reached the highest Boy Scout rank, Eagle, were honored at a dinner, sponsoring of 50 sponsors and scouts Monday evening at Sunset Hills Holiday Inn.

The new Eagles, including eight Quad-Cityans, were led by their re-dedication by Commissioner William Shindel of the Cahokia Mound Council. Principal speaker was Ray Stumm, East St. Louis YMCA executive-director.

Council President Carl E. Mathias and Council Executive Eugene Coe, both of Granite City, addressed the group, as did Frank Dudak, council advancement chairman. Council Vice-President Victor Drexelius was master-of-ceremonies, and the invocation was offered by Robert Bunslemeyer, one of the Eagles.

A highlight of the annual Eagle recognition banquet was a report by each scout on how he had spent Monday. Sponsors, chosen from occupational fields selected by the scouts, had shown the boys a typical day in their professions.

Sponsors included Otto Roman, local farmer; Dr. Leo Coleman and Dr. Albert Triant, Granite City dentist; Appellate Judge George Moran of Granite City; Cbe and Unwih District Executive Edward Meinke Jr.; Keith Jackson, a mechanical engineer residing in Granite City; doctor, pharmacist, music director, Marine Corps captain, Coast Guard lieutenant and two university professors.

New Quad-City Eagle scouts and their leaders are as follows: Bunslemeyer and Gareth D. Smith, Troop Three, St. John's United Church of Christ, Scoutmaster Lewis Liberty; Donald L. Dwyer, Russell Gierach and John Kelleck, Troop Eight, First United Presbyterian Church, Scoutmaster Edward Yates; George J. Moran, Explorer Post 12, Niedringhaus PTA, Advisor George Gluck; David J. Nolan, Troop 18, Sacred Heart Holy Name School, Explorer Post 23, Nameok township board, Advisor Herbert Polley.

2 Barbers Endorsed By Barbers' Union

Barbers Local 483, meeting Tuesday night at the Labor Temple, endorsed two barbers who are seeking election in Granite City April 4 and also named a committee to determine if a Red Cross Blood Bank can be established for the 80 members of the local and their families.

James Morris, president of the union, said the members endorsed Earl Jarrett, a candidate for alderman in the Seventh Ward, and Emerald Dawes, a former alderman and a candidate in the Eighth Ward.

Named to the blood bank committee to work with the United Fund community services office were Carl Buehler, Dawes and Walter Volkmann.

Buehler said the union will work with other locals of the area to join forces in obtaining blood bank benefits.

Practical Nurses Group To View Cancer Film

The Practical Nurses Alumnae Association of F. W. Olin Vocational School of Nursing will view a film on cancer during a 7:30 p.m. meeting today at the school, 2200 Locust avenue, Alton.

In announcing the meeting, Miss Ruth Ann Druhe, instruction coordinator at St. Elizabeth Hospital, said all practical nurses in the area are invited to attend.

Patry Drew in Hospital

Patry Drew, nine-year old daughter of Mrs. June Drew, 2212 Richmond avenue, is a patient at Jewish Hospital, St. Louis, where she underwent emergency surgery for a compound fracture to her thumb. The injury was sustained when she closed the door of a station wagon on her hand Saturday.

Judge's Decision

for public office if the candidate is qualified and if signers of his petition seek it.

"No citizen desiring to run for public office should be deprived to seek it if he should meet the requirements," the judge said.

"Neither should the public be deprived to vote on the candidate."

It is for that reason that for years past it has been law that liberal construction be given to the petition.

Judge Lewis told the assembly that he had served as counsel in election cases before he was named to the bench, and that there are numerous cases that hold that the judge should not take advantage of his legal knowledge but to consider the law as a layman in such cases.

Matter of Technicalities

"The courts have felt that there should not be great emphasis on technicalities to prevent a candidate from running or of preventing the public from voting."

Considering Pendleton's mid-night action of Feb. 15, Judge Lewis noted that the time is not important.

"Were we have a very considerable public official who is doing his best to accommodate the public. He was considering the convenience of the public. We can't complain of the city clerk coming to his office at that hour."

Noting several times that Judge Strenger's previous at-large election ruling would have no bearing on the current case, Judge Lewis agreed that it caused a great amount of confusion not only among the public and candidates, but with lawyers as well.

Three Testify

Testifying at the hearing were the city clerk and the two candidates, Pendleton, in answering questions by William Brandt, attorney for the candidates, and Alvin Gasparovic, the city, outlined the series of events leading to the decision to rule them off the ballot.

Ward and Gasparovic testified that it had been their intent to file two sets of petitions to cover the election to be held in the city. Both had submitted only one statement of candidacy and loyalty oath.

It was pointed out that the first five pages of Gasparovic's petitions listed only the ward designation, omitting the at-large designation, and contained 125 signatures, sufficient to run in the ward.

Alvin was insistent that there was no office as a ward-at-large alderman.

Discretionary Powers

Judge Lewis also questioned the discretionary powers of the city clerk to rule candidates off a ballot, especially where no objections were filed. The two attorneys differed on the matter.

Alvin said the clerk has the discretion of not placing a name on the ballot if the petition on its face is improper. The judge asked him to show where any of the petitions are improper on its face.

The judge added that the questions were if the words "at-large" were harmful to the petitions and if they were "sufficiently" insufficient.

In final arguments Brandt said the two candidates attempted to see that they were covered both ways and that the two filed in substantial compliance with statutory requirements.

Alvin cited several cases in support of his contention, including one in Madison where the city electoral board declared invalid the petitions of a candidate this month, and an older case arising out of Venice.

Aldermanic Lineup

Because of the court order, Tuesday's ballot will list the following aldermanic lineup:

First Ward—Incumbent Charles J. Morrison and B. J. "Bill" Mihur; Second Ward—Incumbent Sam Whigmore and Daniel Sheehan; Third Ward—Incumbent Clyde W. Boyd and Andrew Gasparovic Jr.; Fourth Ward—William "Bill" Harrison and incumbent Claude George;

Fifth Ward—Incumbent Walter F. Norn; Sixth Ward—Incumbent Gerald "Jerry" Parmlay and Kelley Walters; Seventh Ward—Loy Dale Skeen, R. Grad Krause, Carl Pasforth, Norman Alexander and Earl "Fuzzy" Jarrett; and Eighth Ward—Emerald E. Dawes, Edward Schmidt and Ralph Elliott.

In addition, Donald Strucke, who had filed petitions for an at-large election, has announced that he is conducting an active write-in campaign for Eighth Ward alderman.

Warriors Bow To Staunton 10-3, Blank Wood River 5-0

The Warrior baseball squad gained its first Southwestern Conference win by toppling Wood River 5-0 Tuesday, but suffered its first loss in bowing at Staunton 10-3 Wednesday.

Joe Fedora, Warrior baseball coach, attributed the Staunton loss to 10 bases on balls and four batsmen hit by the inexperienced Warrior pitching staff.

"You have to try all the players to give them experience and see what they can do," Fedora noted.

Granite City's three runs were scored by Bob James, Ray Hankins and Roger Cookley. Staunton jumped ahead 4-0 in the first inning and the Warriors rallied with three runs in the fifth. Then Staunton scored three more in the fifth and three in the sixth.

The Warriors made seven hits, compared to Staunton's six.

Wood River Game
Winning over Wood River 5-0 here Tuesday, Granite City took a 1-0 lead in the first-inning as Paul Kacera singled and drove in Roger Cookley from second base. Cookley had walked and stolen a base.

In the third inning Roger Belshie went to first on an error, advanced on a balk, held there as Jeff Jones singled on a bloop, and scored when Carl Benson singled. The bases were filled when Gary Simpson walked, and Steve Conway singled to drive in two more runs.

In the sixth inning, Warrior Don Rains, who pitched a full seven innings, walked an Cookley tripped.

Gun Club Against Ill. Weapon Bills

The John Marshall Gun club of Granite City, an affiliate of the National Rifle Association, is urging local residents to write their legislators objecting to proposed state legislation concerning use of weapons by private citizens.

Arthur Schoenbeck, gun club president and a member of the National Rifle Association, said the legislation would control the licensing and use of guns and require registration fees of $2 per gun with a change of ownership of a gun.

He told the Press-Record that some members of the club have as many as 25 or more guns for which the fee would be required. The proposed laws are Senate bill 478, filed by Thomas A. McGilton of Chicago, and House bill 602, filed by Paul F. Elward of Chicago.

Schoenbeck said objectors could write State Sen. Paul Simon, 306 East Market street, Troy; State Rep. Lloyd Curry Harris, 3233 Aubrey avenue, State Rep. Leland Kennedy, 926 Washington avenue, Alton; and Speaker of the House Ralph T. Smith, Alton.

The bills are among many that have been considered at the state and national levels since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in 1963.

Fishing Good At Ramsey Lake

Fisheries biologists of the Illinois Department of Conservation report that fishing was good in 1966 at Ramsey State Lake, near the town of Ramsey in Fayette county. Anglers caught an estimated 17,000 fish there.

Bluegill were the most important fish caught, followed by largemouth bass and redear sunfish. Anglers also landed crappie, green sunfish, rock bass, channel catfish, brown bullheads and hybrid sunfish.

The lake was sampled by biologists with gill nets, minnow seines and electronic fishing gear, and bluegills up to nine inches long, were abundant. Redears up to 10 inches were fairly common.

Many bass up to 14 inches long and even larger ones were found during the survey. Black crappie were not as abundant as most other fish but they were of good size, averaging two-thirds of a pound each.

Boats are available for rent at Ramsey State Lake. Outboard motors are not permitted, but anglers may use electric motors. The park is open for camping and picnicking.

Trojans Fall to Roxana 5-0, Play Triad Today

The Madison Trojan baseball team dropped its season opener to Midwestern Conference foe Roxana 5-0 at the Madison field Tuesday.

Five errors, committed in the fourth and sixth innings, cost the Trojans the game.

An overthrow at third base in the fourth inning allowed the Shells to score their first run. The scored remained 1-0 until the sixth, when three runs came across on a single, a missed fly in centerfield and a balk.

Despite having men on base in every inning except the fourth, the Trojans failed to score.

Trojan Greg Wasyiak was pitching a no-hitter until the sixth inning, when he allowed three hits.

Harold James relieved in the seventh inning, when he gave up two hits and one run.

Trojan Catcher Louis Crook may have a hairline fracture in the little finger on the right hand, received trying to catch a foul tip.

"With Crook out of the game we will be down to two lettermen," Earl McClanahan Trojan baseball coach, told the Press-Record.

He commented that Wasyiak's pitching was better than he expected at this point in the season, but the Trojan will have to work on fundamentals to improve their performance.

Madison travels to Triad today for a game at 4 p.m.

Fast-Fitch Team Meeting Saturday

Softball players wishing to play on the Kitchner Hardware fast-pitch softball team in the Granite City park district's classic league are being invited to attend a meeting-practice session at 3 p.m. Saturday at the Wilson Park softball diamond.

Those interested may also call team manager Bob Patrick, WE 1-3800.

Kitchner, one of four teams in the Tuesday night classic league, plays an exhibition schedule with other fast-pitch teams in this region on weekends. It has represented Granite City in the last four American Softball Association state final tournaments, finishing third last year.

Ralph Frohardt's Return From Visit to Shiraz, Iran

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Frohardt, 2445 State street, have returned from a three-week visit to Shiraz, Iran, the present home of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Rahnum Simani, and new grandchildren, Lisa Sue. The local couple's first granddaughter, who was born March 7, three days after their arrival in Shiraz, weighed seven pounds. Both mother and child are in good health, the grandparents report.

Relating his impressions of the south-central region of Iran where Shiraz, a city of 220,000 population is situated on a plateau, Frohardt said the area is surrounded by snow-capped mountains. The city itself is most picturesque with an abundance of roses, beautiful landscaped flower gardens and wide boulevards.

He said the average temperature in March is 60 degrees with bright sunshine most days and the air clear and invigorating. Despite the wide boulevards, Frohardt said, very little vehicular traffic is encountered in the city that has no public transportation and a very limited number of private automobiles.

Thronging of pedestrians crowd the streets, ride bicycles or donkeys. Taxi cabs provide the other main form of transportation, he said. Hundreds of donkeys, equipped with two large carpet bags on their sides furnish the means to haul all goods. There are few trucks, Frohardt said, and those he saw were of the three-wheel variety.

Women, still, mostly veiled, carry items on their heads and men and boys on bicycles presented a unique sight as they balanced large trays also on their heads, holding quantities of bowls heaped with rice, bread and other items.

The former Coolidge junior high school principal said education is not compulsory and many five-and-six-year-old boys work as apprentices at various trades with their fathers and grandfathers.

He described the universal method of baking bread in Iran with the dough laid directly on hot coals, resulting in what appears to be a large waffle imprinted with the coals.

Schools are strictly segregated, Frohardt said, with women playing very little part in business, or even hired as clerks in retail stores. While there, he commented, not once did he observe a woman or girl dressed in slacks, riding a bicycle or smoking.

STRETCH YOUR SAUSAGE

The central European countries are noted for their sausages. Each country or section of a country seems to have their own special ingredient combinations and spices or seasonings. Some sausages are named from the country of their origin as Polish sausage or Italian sausage.

A sausage is defined as one or more ground meats blended together with spices and stuffed into casings or shaped into loaves. This description includes our cold luncheon meats as sausages, although we seldom think of them in this respect.

In one reference I found the notation that there are more than 22 varieties of sausages that are "stuffed" into a casing. Fresh pork sausage is a mixture of coarse ground pork and spices. The seasoning used is generally salt, black pepper and sage. This product is not smoked or precooked, so it must be kept refrigerated until used for it is perishable.

Pork sausage when used in a casserole goes a long way. The following casserole is a good way to stretch the food dollar.

SAUSAGE-SWEET POTATO CASSEROLE

1 pound pork sausage in 4 patties
2 (1-pound) cans sweet potatoes
1 cup pineapple tidbits, drained
1/2 cup raisins
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 teaspoon salt

Brown sausage in skillet. Drain. Mash sweet potatoes. Combine with remaining ingredients. Turn into 1 1/2-quart buttered casserole. Arrange sausage on top. Bake at 350° 20 to 25 minutes. Six servings.

Program of Music by SIU-SW Faculty to be Given at Tea

University faculty artists in woodwinds, cello and voice will be featured next Monday on the program at the first public musical performance presented in the Quad-City area by Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

The program is part of a University musical and literary event sponsored by the Ladies' Coterie at the YMCA beginning at 1 p.m. Open to the public throughout the area, the affair is a silver tea for the benefit of Friends of the Library of Southern Illinois University. It will also include an exhibit and talk on rare books.

Mrs. Edward Reiske, entertainment chairman for the event, announced today that Harold R. Fischer, a member of the University board of trustees, will be present for the welcoming remarks. John C. Abbott, director of Lovejoy Library, and Andrew J. Kochman, dean of fine arts at the University, will be special guests.

A woodwind trio composed of faculty members and a senior student will play Jacques Ibert's "Five Pieces for Trio." Herbert Oberlag and George Melott of the university music faculty will play the oboe and clarinet, and Miss Carolyn Radfield, a senior student from St. Louis majoring in musical performance, will play the bassoon.

Mr. Oberlag is associated with the St. Louis Symphony, is a member of the University Chamber Orchestra and was a member of the orchestra which toured Europe with the Concordia Cantata Chorus. Mr. Melott has been acting conductor of the University Symphonic Band and is also first clarinetist with the St. Louis Philharmonic orchestra. Both are assistant professors at the University.

Joseph Pival, music faculty cellist, will play Brahms' "Sonata in F Major, Opus 99" accompanied by Lawrence Berry. Mr. Pival is a member of the Faculty String quartet, which has toured extensively in Illinois and Missouri. Mr. Berry is a sophomore studying musical performance under Ruth Slenczynska, eminent concert pianist who is a professor of music at the University.

Leslie Breidenbach, faculty bassoonist, will sing "Dein ist mein ganzes Herz" by Fritsch. "Trepak" by Moussorgsky; "Mexican Serenade" by Sacco and "Some Enchanted Evening" by Rodgers and Hammerstein. Ruth Breidenbach will be the accompanist. Dr. Breidenbach's experience includes five years of study and professional singing in Italy and he is a frequent soloist in major choral productions in this area. He is an associate professor on the faculty.

Music lovers and persons interested in books and in the University are invited to attend the affair. There will be no admission charge and all are welcome. Invitations have been sent out inviting all members of organizations in the Quad-City and to federated women's clubs in all cities within a radius of 20 miles. A "silver tea" offers guests who wish to do so an opportunity to contribute to a specific cause. The Friends of the Library, for whose benefit The Coterie is staging the affair, is an organization devoted to development and enrichment of the resources of the University Library.

Mrs. Stephen R. Stimson Jr., executive secretary of The Friends, will speak on rare books and present an exhibit of some rare volumes owned by Lovejoy Library.

MRS. LOUISE SERFAS, local youth worker, admires the plaque presented her Monday evening by the Metro-East Juvenile Officers Association. Left to right are: George C. Tallor, Granite City chief of detectives and president of the Association; the award winner's husband, Harry Serfas; Mrs. Serfas; and Detective Sgt. Joseph J. Nemeth of the local police department, who made the presentation.

Juvenile Officers' Group Honors Mrs. Louise Serfas

Within the past 12 years, hundreds of Granite City teenagers, have become acquainted with Mrs. Louise Serfas, who serves as hostess at the YMCA Teen Town and provides assistance to many troubled young people on an individual basis.

In recognition of her service to the community's youth, Mrs. Serfas was honored Monday evening by the Metro-East Juvenile Officers Association. A ceremony and presentation of an award took place during the association's regular session, at the Trailways Restaurant near Belleville.

Chief of Detectives George C. Tallor of Granite City, president of the association, conducted the meeting, attended by about 40 members and guests.

Detective Sergeant Joseph J. Nemeth of the Granite City police department, in making the presentation to Mrs. Serfas, commented, "Her concern for young people is not bounded by relationship. To her, all children are her children and hers. She offers them encouragement, guidance, love and understanding. "At a time of bewilderment known and experienced by all teenagers, a good talk with Mrs. Serfas always appears to help. The advice she offers them stems not from an educational background in psychology or sociology, but from a practical source of being a devoted mother, a proud wife and a sincerely religious person, coupled with insight and wisdom gained from years of close work with teenagers."

Recognized as an excellent cook, Mrs. Serfas often draws the teenage crowd into her own home to enjoy homemade pastries and hot chocolate. Sgt. Nemeth related. He pointed out that she frequently responds to a call for help to prepare a teenage party, parent-child dinner or church function.

Most of Mrs. Serfas' work with teenagers centers around a small table at the YMCA Teen Town, the police officer said, however, quite often it overflows to her home, which is always open to those needing help.

Miss June Fowler, honored queen of Bethel 43, International Order of Job's Daughters, presided at a meeting Tuesday evening at the Maschke Temple.

Plans were completed to hold two fun projects. A roller skating party will be held at Troy, as a joint party with the Collinsville Bethel on April 7 and a tour of Forest Park and a picnic on May 12.

Past Honored Queens escorted and introduced were Miss Diane French, Mrs. Florence Todoroff and Mrs. Edith Champion.

Also escorted and introduced were Mrs. Nell Baskette, guardian, and Dr. E. H. Theis, associate guardian.

Miss Jackie Ross, librarian, presided at a reading, "A Tribute to Our Two New States."

Also discussed was the forthcoming trip to Chicago for officers and members to attend the Grand Session April 27.

The next meeting will be held April 11 when Past Honored Queens will be honored. A Mother's Club meeting will be held preceding the regular meeting at 6:30. All mothers of members are invited to attend.

Refreshments were served by the Mothers' Club to about 60 persons.

Council Ok's $21,104 Bills; Rejects Expense Allowances

Granite City council members approved a $21,104 bill and a half-month payroll amounting to $44,896 during Monday night's session, and also agreed to pay doctor bills totaling $120 for two persons injured in mishaps involving city property.

Separated from the bill list before approval was given were two expense allowances and a lawyer's fee. The amounts taken off the list were $150 for three months' auto allowance for Police Chief Ronald Veizer and $50 for former chief Raymond Williams for December.

Payment of $30 to Morris Chapman, local lawyer, who had the client suing the city, was held up for legal clarification since the lawyer has been representing the city in condemnation proceedings. The payment of $300 to his client, John D. Sealey, a minor, who was hurt in a bicyclist fall on a sidewalk, was included on the list.

Roy Strawn, local lawyer, was paid $1700 for work to date on condemnations.

The other injury payments were $75 to Johnnie Johnson, a minor who was hurt when he slipped on ice in the alley at the rear of the city hall and was struck by a slow-moving police car, and $45 to Helen Woodside, who was hurt in a fall on a down-town sidewalk.

Other items on the bill list included—$10,277 paid to National Disposal Service for garbage and trash collections in March and $150 paid to the firm for handling Madison and Venice debris at the Granite City dump. The two cities reimburse Granite City for the cost.

Other bill list items included $600 paid to Illinois Power Co. for electric service to six air raid warning sirens, $598 paid to the power company for electric service during February to the sewerage treatment plant, $408 paid to Nooter Corp. for repairing a crack in the boiler at the main fire station, $726 paid to the Francis Agency for a three-year special coverage policy.

The city's dues for a one-year sustaining membership in the Southwest Illinois Council of Mayors amounted to $50.

Another bill paid by the city, but not included on the list, was $1787 to Tri-City Printing Co. for publishing a governmental booklet written over two years ago by former alderwoman Mrs. Gabrielle Bedone.

Authorization was given for trial use of a postage meter machine, with the city to furnish the trial period.

NFO Pickets Dairies 'Around The Clock'

Dairies in Madison county, including Aro-Dressel Foods in Granite City will be picketed 24 hours a day until the National Farmers Organization obtains an increase in milk prices for dairy farmers, according to a report yesterday by Ervin Wein, vice-president of the Madison-Six Clair district of the NFO.

More than 80 persons attended a regular monthly meeting of the Madison county unit of the NFO at Hanel Monday night and most of them volunteered for picketing duty, Wein said. He said two other dairies in Madison county both located in Edwardsville, also are picketed.

Dairy farmers are demanding an increase of two cents per quart in the wholesale price of milk and have been conducting a milk withholding program in an effort to enforce their demands. Most cooperatives are not participating in the hold plan and as a result the program has had little effect.

Wein said picketing of dairies is this area.

Jon Dressel of Aro-Dressel here said that only about five or six of 250 farmers supplying milk to the dairy firm are holding milk from market. Actually, he said, most dairies have a surplus of supplies available because the current season is the best for milk production.

Wein said picketing of dairies being conducted nation-wide and will be continued on a 24-hour per-day basis.

Fred Rumpf, scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop One, asked for help from the members with a scout barbecue to be held this Saturday and Sunday.

Next meeting will be April 10.

Larson to Speak at SIU-SW Issues Forum

Arthur Larson, author, educator and former director of the U. S. Information Agency, will be the principal speaker when Southern Illinois University's humanities division at the Southwestern campus sponsors a conference Wednesday devoted to "The Professor and Controversial Public Issues."

Six Competing Candidates Outline GC School Proposals

All six Granite City school board candidates unveiled their proposals and platforms at a public forum Tuesday night at Cooke junior high school. About 50 persons attended.

The candidates generally endorsed current school procedures but called for continual reevaluation and improvement. Three are to be elected April 8.

The second annual school candidate forum again was sponsored by the Granite City Area Council of Parent-Teacher Associations, Quad-Cities Ministerial Association and Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce.

Attorney Leo H. Konzen was moderator and urged increased turnout in school elections. Refreshments were served following the talks.

Candidates discussed three general topics, the instructional program, business policies and ways of obtaining public understanding and support of the school program.

Lots were drawn to determine the speaking order—Dr. E. W. Walton, Henry J. Beadle, John C. Lakin, Carl Macios, Morris W. Miles and William L. Harris.

Summaries of their remarks follow:

School Instruction
Dr. Walton said current instruction is effective and "must be maintained." He noted that the position of curriculum coordinator has just been created to achieve further improvement.

"The present counselor-pupil ratio is too high and is being reduced. We are now trying to attract additional remedial reading teachers."

More modern trends and techniques.
"Experimental programs should be tried, tested, evaluated and expanded when justified by the results, based on information and nothing wrong with our school administrative recommendations submitted to this board."

"The task of challenging and stimulating personnel to reach a 100 percent effectiveness is a never-ending process."

Beadle said that while some may consider him a radical, he uses common sense and would "stand up for what is right" as a board member.

Teachers Overburdened
Saying he is "the first to admit that I am not an expert" that I have all the answers," Lakin said he feels that effectiveness of instruction can be increased.

"Our teachers are overloaded with duties that take them away from actual teaching," He singles out the present teaching of economics as being in need of improvement.

He called for more "electronic teaching aids" as a means of giving teachers more time with individual students.

"We should look for the best possible talent in our teachers, administrators, custodians and cafeteria workers and follow a merit hiring system, with each candidate placing in the top three before being hired."

Macios said, "The quality of our instruction has improved noticeably during the last three to five years, due principally to two reasons."

"First, the board has sought to raise teaching salaries to a professional level and to improve school equipment and facilities. Second, teaching methods have been improved through the non-graded system, initial teaching through length talks between the and instructional aids."

Miles said he would be better able to formulate specific proposals after beginning actual board service. "Maybe there's nothing wrong with our school system," he said, adding that his goal would be progress and increasing efficiency.

With a goal of "qualified people to operate our schools," he said he favors hiring through a merit system rather than recommendations from a seniority list. He praised the work of Supt. Davis, Comptroller Anderson and Personnel Administrator Lee.

Harris said the board has a duty to secure a well-qualified staff and then to determine overall objectives and policies to be carried out.

Comments Present Board
"One of the most important things in improving the efficiency of the board, administration and faculty is to have mutual trust and security. This you have with your present board."

Business—
Dr. Walton said, "Our current business procedures are out-of-date and need only periodic review and improvement. Our competitive bidding should be continued. The goal is to give taxpayers the most for their money."

"Budgeting is carried out year in advance. My only pet peeve is that when we took action on an $8,886,867 operating budget last summer, not one citizen other than the news media attended the hearing."

"All our records are microfilm and we are exploring increasing use of data processing."

"I favor early determination through direct negotiations, with arms-length talks between the employees and the board representatives, consisting of three board members and three administrators."

Beadle cited experience as a credit union, church, labor union officer. Having suffered a heart attack last fall, he has no longer time to devote to the school board, he commented, adding, "I feel I'm capable of helping the school district."

Lakin said that the board and Comptroller Anderson have reformed bidding to the extent that Granite City schools are obtaining many supplies at prices less than those of a decade ago.

He urged salary determination through negotiations, with any "comparable to industry in order to get good people and keep them."

Macios said school funds are being handled efficiently but that further improvement will be achieved. He supported the bid and purchasing and the district's step administrative salary schedule.

He added that staff satisfaction and efficiency can lead to a continually better school system. He said his goal is to see local schools become "the best in the nation."

No Sacrifice in Quality
Miles said that while he is not an educator, he could bring business and supervisory experience to the board.

"I favor awarding of bids on a low-bid basis but not sacrificing needed quality to save a few pennies."

He said the board must strive to "provide the best education possible, based on sound practices."

Harris told the gathering, "This is a big business—over 800 employees and a yearly budget of $10 million, including building and site."

Alcoholic Day Classes Completing 3rd Month

Alton State Hospital is completing the third month of its "alcoholic day program," the chief of the program is Jan. 30.

Goal of the program is a treatment program aimed at physical, psychological, social and spiritual rehabilitation, to the extent that an individual can live acceptably in his own eyes and in the eyes of the community without alcohol.

It is an open program, with the participant either living at home or at the hospital and attending from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday.

A six-to-eight-week program on a voluntary basis is recommended. All services available in the hospital are utilized including social service, psychological services, nursing services, activity therapy, industrial therapy, volunteer services and group therapy.

All disciplines are merged to achieve effectiveness. Vocational training is included, specifically in discharge planning.

The treatment approach is individualized in nature—lectures and discussions regarding the nature of alcoholism and its effect on the individual and personality development. This information is then applied by the participant in psychotherapy sessions.

An honor system is used. Each member is responsible for his own behavior and also that of every other participant. Ward meetings held weekly by the members enable them to develop leadership techniques and deal with the responsibility placed on them.

Alcoholics Anonymous is active in aiding the individuals to attend meetings off grounds five evenings a week and also has some participation in the day program. Mental health clinics are used as a referral after an individual is discharged.

Bernice Rudin, program co-ordinator, said she is hopeful that in the near future some of the individuals in the program will be able to return to the community and live without the need for hospitalization as detoxification centers, the alcoholism day program as a teaching and rehabilitation program, and the mental health increasing tax burden. He noted clinics for referral and follow-up that the administrative staff has up after the individual is discharged but he is not charged with the responsibility of the educational program.

"The board should continue to cultivate strong public support and consider the needs and desires of the public, administrators and other citizens in carrying out its policy-making function."

Beadle noted his long residence in the school district and said he was in the first class that occupied the new vocational building at Granite City high school in 1928. He said he has been active in numerous local organizations.

Lakin said he favors keeping the public adequately informed and fostering effective communications within the school system.

School-Community Contact
He urged major expansion of program in which representatives of business, industry and other fields speak to classes and provide a career training. He pledged to do "everything I can" to develop progressive school policies.

Macios advocated full public awareness of the "policies and actions of the school board. Only with the interest and support of everyone can we achieve an effective program and avoid misunderstanding."

Miles commented that to help provide quality education, board members should attend PTA meetings, talk to the public and consult with the teaching staff, including "sitting in on classes."

He said, "It is important that everyone be willing to serve in a constructive manner so that no individual will be benefited. I can't think of a better way to serve the community than through the school board."

Harris said it is important that board members consider all facts and reach decisions which seem to them to be the best. "We won't be effective if we thought in terms of any one group. We need to listen to all, read, think and sometimes with the interest and support of everyone can we achieve an effective program and avoid misunderstanding."

Farm Column

By Warren W. Bundy
Madison County Farm Adviser

Fertilizers Recommended

Fertilizers are recommended for most garden plots, says Chris Doll, University of Illinois area adviser in fruits and vegetables. "Doll says the exact amount to use or what to use depends upon fertility of the soil and crop being grown."

Generally it is advisable to have the soil samples taken every four or five years to know the exact fertility level. Directions for taking soil samples and information as to where they can be analyzed may be obtained from your county farm adviser.

A general recommendation for fertilizing garden soils is to use a fertilizer that contains equal amounts of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium at the rate of one pound per 100 square feet. A soil test will tell whether you need more or less.

Apply fertilizers before planting vegetable crops. Broadcast fertilizer over the garden soil and mix it with the soil during which annual growth is increased.

"Fruit buds are produced in many plants the year prior to fruiting, so annual pruning is necessary for good fruit production. Pruning keeps a tree or plant in bounds to make picking and spraying easier."

Farmers Bulletin No. 1870, "Pruning Hardy Fruit Plants," is available from your United States congressman or from the Department of Horticulture, University of Illinois, Urbana. This bulletin explains how to prune all fruit plants grown in this area.

The time to apply dormant spray to fruit plants is from now until the time growth begins with warm weather. Plant oils manufactured for dormant season use should be applied if scale insects are a problem. For peach leaf curl control add Ferbam fungicide to the dormant oil mixture.

Spray on a warm day when temperature will not go down to 32 degrees within the next 24 hours. Timing of other sprays will begin at a later date, Doll concluded.

Dairying for Profit
"Dairying for Profit" is the theme of a dairy school set for Thursday, March 30. Dairyman Carl Baumann says he and registered dairy herd owners are invited to the program at 10:30 a.m. in the New Exposition building on the fairgrounds at Highland.

"Financing the Modern Dairy Farm" will be discussed by Max Rogers of the Farmers and Merchants Bank.

Extension Dairyman Stan Smith will talk on animal nutrition.

Dr. Joe Helms, Edwardsville veterinarian, will talk on "Breeding Efficiency."

Greenview Dairyman Harry Turley will discuss his farm management practices.

A panel discussion and several dairy displays, are other program features. Program moderator will be Robert Heinman, Holstein Friesian Association fieldman.

The Wisconsin-Missouri Program sponsors are the Holstein Clubs in Bond, Madison and Clinton counties, the Southern Holstein Association and West Central Holstein Club. A $1 registration fee will cover cost of noon lunch.

The latest in labor saving ideas and equipment will be displayed at the sixth annual Southern Illinois farm materials handling exposition March 28 and 29. It will be held on the Washington.

State Capitol NEWS

First Disaster Hospital

Memorial Hospital of DuPage county, Elmhurst, became the first hospital in the nation to contract for federal emergency medical supplies for use in the event of a major disaster.

"In addition," Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, reported, "Memorial Hospital is affiliated with the Packaged Disaster Hospital Program and has one of the 200-bed complete general surgical units stored on its premises."

Illinois has 66 PDR strategically placed throughout the state. These are available to selected community hospitals and are provided by the U. S. Public Health Service through the state health department. These 200-bed units contain a 30-day supply of operational equipment and medicines.

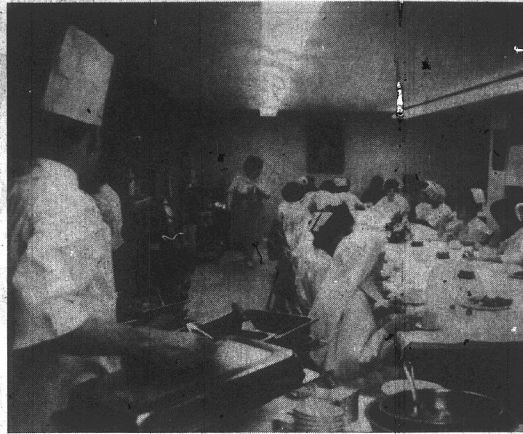

The hospital reserve disaster inventory, which the Elmhurst hospital will now receive, is another 30-day supply of medical items for disaster care. The hospital will use these emergency supplies on its regular operations and will continue to purchase such supplies on its regular schedule, thus maintaining the backup of the emergency inventory.

HN Ho, To the Fair

A total of 102 county fairs will again be held this year, according to Robert M. Schneider, director of the Illinois Department of Agriculture.

The fairs will begin July 1 and the season will end Sept. 17. A complete listing of all the 1947 county fairs, their scheduled dates, secretaries and managers, is available in pamphlet form.

Copies may be obtained by writing F. I. Crum, superintendent, Division of County Fairs,

ST. ELIZABETH NURSES shown at a breakfast given in their honor yesterday, as part of the hospital's observance of "National Nurses Week" which continues through the weekend. Approximately 100 nurses were served between 6-8:30 a.m. with each one presented a rose in recognition of devoted service.

"Hunting has had no effect on the breeding potential and neither has winter weather," Lodge continued. "There is plenty of breeding stock left to populate the areas."

Evangelist to Present African Scenes Here

World traveler, lecturer and evangelist Ernie Eskelin will present a one-hour color film, "Inside Africa," Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at the First Assembly of God Church, 24th street and Grand avenue. He recently returned from his fourth trip to 14 African countries.

His film shows conflicts in Leopoldville, where he covered "The Congo Story" for a Texas television network. Also depicted in the film are Dr. Albert Schweitzer and his work in Gabon, and ritual of primitive tribes of the Sahara Desert and the jungles.

Eskelin and his wife were in Ghana, Nigeria, and Upper Volta during the unrest in those countries. One of the movie's scenes shows Timbuctu, the city which noted traveler Lowell Thomas called "the end of the world." The noon temperature in Timbuctu is about 154 degrees many days.

Pastor J. Boyd Wolverton is inviting the public to attend the service.

New Book on Scholarships To Colleges Available

"College Opportunities for Illinois Students," a comprehensive book underwritten by the Illinois Manufacturers Association to encourage and assist young Illinoisans to obtain the benefits of higher education, is now off the press in a new 1967-68 edition.

The first edition of the book last year was a "best-seller" with two press runs completely sold out, according to IMA's executive vice-president, E. Edger-ton Hart.

This year's 68-page publication contains up-to-date information on more than 12,000 college scholarships representing hundreds of thousands of dollars in stipends available to Illinois high school graduates.

Special Sections

In addition, special sections of the book are devoted to: The complete text of Article 30 of the Illinois School Code relating to teacher education scholarships; General Assembly Scholarships; veterans' scholarships and county scholarships; A guide to sources of special information on particular professions and vocations; Suggestions on how to obtain college student loans; and Advice on how to obtain college campus jobs.

Announcing IMA's support of the project, IMA President William C. Croft, president of The Pyle-Nations Co. Chicago, said: "The more than 5,000 manufacturing firms who are members of our association employ more than a million persons, including more than 25,000 men and women serving in executive capacities."

"Ninety per cent of these business executives have college backgrounds. The value of and the need for a higher education are inestimable to the young man or young woman who would serve and succeed in today's world."

Aid to Counselors

Ray Page, state superintendent of public instruction, described the new book as "a fine example of an approach to the perplexing problems of post high school educational costs."

"These materials, when properly utilized with professional assistance from the school counselor, will enable secondary school students to have new insights and new avenues to approach the increasing cost of advanced educational programs," Page said.

The book is published for the IMA by Educational Opportunities Unlimited, Inc., 824 North Cooper, Peoria, Ill.; and may be ordered by mail from the Peoria address at a not-for-profit cost of 75 cents per copy.

FHA to Observe 21st Birthday Next Week

Future Homemakers of America, this year observing its 21st anniversary during FHA Week next week, affords high school and junior high school girls valuable guidance in personal development, according to Anita Carol Fuitts, chairman of the home economics education department at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

"The FHA girl—and there are 27,806 of them in 577 chapters in Illinois—has a head start on college, for she has learned sound citizenship, good personal habits, home-care habits, how to select clothes, how to get along with others, how to assume responsibility and how to participate and serve in community activities," she said.

"All these will stand her in good stead when she gets to college. She knows how to get the most for her money in clothes, and often she has learned to sew most of her wardrobe. She knows how to take care of her room, how to cooperate with her roommate and with others in the residence hall, how to pitch in and help with campus projects."

Southern's school of home economics has close ties with FHA. An FHA center is located in the home economics education laboratory. Students majoring in home economics education are prepared to sponsor FHA activities when they begin teaching. SIU faculty members are frequent speakers at FHA rallies.

Eldon Sayre, a returned missionary from Rhodesia and his family, will speak at two services at 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Central Free Methodist Church, 22nd and State streets.

Mr. Sayre has lived in Rhodesia for almost 20 years. During his past term as a missionary there he served as director of African education for the Free Methodist mission and as a mission superintendent. Among his responsibilities were two boarding schools, an upper primary school and a secondary school located at Lundi station. Because a three-year scarcity of rain has stunted crops in the Lundi area, bringing famine, Mr. Sayre helped distribute relief through the schools and after

Expanded One-Way St. Proposal Deferred

Another try to expand and extend Granite City's one-way street system without changing directions of existing one-way thoroughfares was made during Monday night's council session—but action was deferred.

The new proposal, prepared by Alderman Bartosik, was presented as an ordinance for adoption, and Alderman Nunn, chairman of the Ordinance committee, called for suspension of rules for passage.

Immediate debate ensued, and Alderman Thompson, turning the proposed action as a "political wedge," called for deferral. The second to his motion was made by Alderman Parmley.

The new one-way proposal could still be a pre-election issue as the ordinance possibly will be resubmitted to the council next Monday—the eve of the city election.

The system, as proposed, would extend from Benton street to Washington avenue, with Delmar and Madison avenues remaining two-way.

Outline of Proposal
Benton street would be northbound from 20th to 27th street, Cleveland blvd. would be southbound from 27th to 20th.

Edison avenue would be northbound from 18th to 27th. State street would be northbound from 18th to 27th.

Grand avenue would be northbound from 18th to 27th. Iowa street would be northbound from 20th to Nameoki road.

Washington avenue would be southbound from 22nd to 20th. While Rutledge pointed to possible congestion at 27th and Benton streets, Thompson was the prime objector to the one-way proposal.

He said he strongly advocated the system outlined last year by a traffic engineer for reversal of several one-way streets to provide better access to the downtown area.

"I believe some aldermen are trying to use this as a political wedge and don't think we should rush into this to save some alderman's hide. I request deferral." With Thompson's deferral motion seconded by Parmley, the debate was ended.

Aldermanic Candidate Questions

Six questions were asked each of the candidates running for aldermen in the April 4 election in Granite City. The candidate's answer appears with his biographical sketch.

1. Do you favor urban renewal for rehabilitation of declining sections of Granite City?
2. Do you favor continuation of the policy to encourage annexation of fringe areas?
3. Do you favor compliance with regulatory requirements governing ward populations and the number of city wards?
4. Do you favor a planned, long-term program of street improvements and traffic controls based on professional research?
5. Do you favor reimbursement of actual aldermanic expenses rather than fixed expense allowances?
6. Do you favor competitive bidding on city purchases?

21 Candidates on City Ballot; One In Write-In Race

Twenty-one candidates will seek election to Granite City municipal office in Tuesday's city-township elections, with 20 of them running by wards for eight aldermanic posts.

The other candidate is William Warfield, incumbent superintendent of streets who is seeking re-election to that post without opposition. He is running city-wide. The names of 19 of the aldermanic candidates will be on the city ballot. The remaining candidate, Donald Stucke, 1613 Clark street, will campaign as a write-in candidate. Stucke was one of many candidates who filed "at-large" petitions and ruled off the ballot.

Two candidates who were not to be placed on the ballot as a result of the same court order won their listings on the ballot in mandamus proceedings in circuit court Monday afternoon. They are Kelley Walls, 2625 Saratoga avenue, and Andrew Gasparovic Jr., 2150 Edison avenue. Stucke is a write-in candidate, is seeking election in the Eighth Ward. Walls is a candidate in the Sixth Ward and Gasparovic is in the Third Ward.

Following the court's action in mandamus proceedings, City Clerk Homer Pendleton announced that because of the similarity of the names of R. G. Norman G. Alexander, 2637 State street, who also had been ruled off the ballot, he will include Alexander's name on the ballot as a candidate in the Seventh Ward.

Oppose Incumbents
Until Monday's mandamus ruling, incumbent Alderman Clyde Boyd of the Third Ward, and incumbent Alderman Gerald Parmley of the Sixth Ward, were without opposition. Consequently, only one incumbent alderman will win re-election by default. He is Walter Nomm, of the Fifth Ward, who has no opposition.

Candidates on the city election ballot will include: Warfield, superintendent of streets; Charles Moerlien, incumbent, 1316 Edwards street; B. J. Mihū, 2132 Iowa street.

Second Ward—Samuel Whitmer, incumbent, 2321 State street, and Daniel Sheehan, 2437 Sheridan street.

Third Ward—Clyde Boyd, incumbent, 2321 Benton street, and Gasparovic.

Fourth Ward—William Harrison, 739 Twenty-seventh place, and Claude Green, incumbent, 3115 Illinois avenue.

Fifth Ward—Norman, 2711 Cayuga street.

Sixth Ward—Gerald Parmley, incumbent, 2221 Willow avenue, and Walls.

Seventh Ward—Loy "Dale" Sheen, 3133 Feilding road; Earl Jarrett, 2812 Iowa street; and Norman Alexander, 2637 State street. The name of R. G. Norman Alexander also appears on the ballot in this ward, but he has announced he has withdrawn from the running and does not seek election.

Eighth Ward—Emerald Dawes, 2462 State street; Charles Schmidt, 2533 Lincoln avenue; and Ralph Elliott, 2137 Lynch avenue.

Polling places in the city, township and park elections will open Tuesday at 6 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Slight Change In Registration

Only a slight change in the registration of voters in the four Quad-City townships was reported today by the following: Eulalia Hotz, Madison county clerk.

Total registration of Granite City, Namooki, Venice and Chouteau townships is 32,656 for the township election on April 4. A ballot in the Granite City municipal election does not need to be registered.

In the No. 8 general election last year, the total registration of the Quad-City townships was 32,699.

The new registration figures, compiled after a recent registration period for new voters and persons wishing to correct their voting records, are as follows: With the No. 8 figure in parentheses: Granite City, 18,076 (18,365); Namooki 4734 (4740); Chouteau 3499 (3461), and Venice 6547 (6441).

TO THE VOTERS OF CHOUTEAU TOWNSHIP:

This letter is to the Ladies and Gentlemen who will be voting in the CHOUTEAU TOWNSHIP GENERAL ELECTION FOR ROAD COMMISSIONER ON APRIL 4, 1967.

GERALD H. (JERRY) FARRIS believe it is time to do something about the streets and roads of our township. I think the roads and streets in worst condition should be brought up to par first, regardless of the precinct in which they are located. The drainage problems that we have, I will strive to determine where the water should go.

In the best of interest of you, the citizens of our township, I promise the highest quality of road care possible.

At 17 years old I was running heavy equipment on road jobs in CCC Camp. With twenty-five (25) years of actual road building and maintenance experience, I sincerely believe I can fulfill the many time-consuming duties and responsibilities of YOUR road commissioner for CHOUTEAU TOWNSHIP.

If will, if necessary, make available and use my own equipment to take care of any and all road problems in case of township equipment failure, this will be done to insure that the roads and streets of our township will be in the best possible condition at all times.

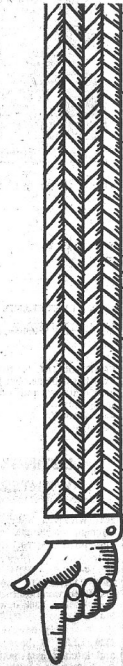

The lady that is knocking on your doors is my wife. We have been married 30 years.

This letter is my personal appeal for your VOTE AND SUPPORT in the Election of APRIL 4, 1967. If you have any questions or desire further information you may feel free to telephone or visit me at home.

Climb in the Cudavert, Claudia.

A Cudavert will get you. And we're not popin' our tops. Cuda, Claudia, is the most for the least. The next best thing to a European GT—without getting anywhere near it in price. Cuda (pronounced Coo-da) is short for Barracuda. And Barracuda is short for "the snarliest slice of sports car that ever clobbered competition." It's that quick. And responsive. And in terms of price—clever! C'mon. Give it a whirl, Cudacool.

GC STEEL'S NEW HOT STRIP mill work horses are huge electric motors, like above, that will contribute to a total of 105,000 HP used to drive roughing and finishing mill stands in the massive complex of buildings, heating furnaces, roughing mills, finishing mills, and coilers scheduled to go into production this year. The total weight of rotating electrical equipment—motors and generators—will be about 4000 tons or 8,000,000 pounds.

THREE POWERFUL DOWNCOILERS will receive up to 80-inch wide steel for winding into coils which can weigh as much as 80,000 pounds and have a diameter of seven feet, two inches. The final operating units of Granite City Steel's multi-million dollar expansion receive steel reduced to an ordered gage (.0478-inch minimum, 1/2-inch maximum). The strip moves away from the last finishing mill stand over a long runout table where it is coated by a 40,000-gallon per minute water flow before coiling.

The head end of the strip engages one of the coilers before the trailing end has even entered the seven finishing mill stands. Once the head end is threaded into the coilers, at about 200 feet per minute, the strip can be accelerated at 42 m.p.h. 2000 feet per minute).

National CD Plans Home Shelter Survey

The National Office of Civil Defense and the Bureau of Census have begun preparations for a home fallout shelter survey in Illinois. Col. Dawson M. Vance, Illinois civil defense director, has informed Granite City CD Director Victor H. Koenig.

The study of homes in Illinois to determine the number of additional shelter spaces where people are greatly concentrated recently was authorized by President Lyndon B. Johnson in reply to a request that Illinois be permitted to participate in the program. The request was made by Gov. Otto Kerner, the state director advised.

Col. Vance reported that a home shelter pilot study conducted in Minnesota resulted in responses from 87% of the persons living in one to three family dwellings. Four other states included in the initial pilot group have completed the survey, with responses received from 80% of those householders making the shelter survey questionnaire, he said.

The state CD director commented, "Since we have a deficit of shelter spaces and an uneven distribution of people to spaces in Illinois, the home shelter survey is an excellent means of locating additional facilities. I therefore feel, Illinois, with its large population, should be among the first group of states to receive this additional shelter study."

The survey by Mail. The survey is conducted entirely by mail. A questionnaire dealing with the size, design and location of the home is filled out by the home owner and returned by mail.

Romm noted, "An increasing share of our effort at the federal level will be devoted to obtaining dual-purpose shelter spaces in new buildings and other types of facilities that will be constructed over the years ahead. There is a great potential in this area."

There presently is a service station on the northeast corner. The lots are at 2808 East 23rd street and at 2520-25-34-38 Name-oki road.

Referred to the City Planning Commission was a petition by Daniel Churovich, Democratic committeeman of Precinct 27, who recently petitioned the transit authority to extend the service, said starting Monday, April 24, two additional runs into the housing project will be made on a daily basis at 8:47 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Present service into the area is at 10 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Churovich pointed out the extension of bus service could benefit nearly 260 elderly residents of Anchorage Homes, enabling them to make earlier appointments with their physicians or to shop a little later in the downtown area.

He said officials of the transit authority appeared to find the request justified when they learned that 100 new units are now occupied in the 200-unit apartment facility. Churovich explained that written verification, officially extending the service, will be mailed to him within the next two weeks.

"Y" Sets Date for First Indian Guides Pow-Wow

An organizational "pow-wow" for fathers and sons wishing to join the Y-Indian Guides program will be held at 7:30 p.m. next Wednesday, in the YMCA, according to Marvin E. VanMetre, "Y" adult program director.

The pow-wow will include an explanation of tribe activity and formation and also will feature group singing and stunts, the YMCA official said. Participation in the Indian Guides program is open to boys now attending kindergarten or enrolled in first and second grades.

VanMetre reported that Y-Indian Guides incorporate more than 25,000 large and small braves from coast-to-coast. He said, "The program's basic purpose is to multiply the number of activities that fathers and sons can enjoy together."

Tribes of six to eight "couples" meet in rotation at homes twice monthly, the director explained, adding that tribal sessions are kept brief and simple with major emphasis on "just doing things together."

Occasional field trips are taken by the tribes to varied points of interest and weekend encampments also play a popular part in the group activity, VanMetre said.

Since there are no rigid tests or achievements for boys to accomplish, each tribe develops its own program within a framework found to be most beneficial from experience dating back to 1925 when the program was launched by the St. Louis YMCA, the director commented.

He added, "The Y-Indian Guide program is geared for the busy but thinking father who desires to spend more time with his son."
